MOTOR VEHICLE/TRAILER TEMPORARY PERMIT

FORM
1852

(REV. 1-2012)

THROUGH

A TEMPORARY PERMIT authorizes the operation of a motor vehicle or trailer by a buyer for not more than thirty (30) days from the date of purchase of the motor vehicle or trailer. Motor vehicles or trailers displaying a temporary permit can be operated empty, loaded, or with mounted equipment. This permit is not transferable or renewable. A dealer or authorized agent may only issue a Temporary Permit to a vehicle sold by the dealership and may charge no more than $7.50 for the permit.

$75.00 PER BOOK OF 10 PERMITS PLUS A $3.50 PROCESSING FEE.

INSTRUCTIONS: This permit is to be attached to the inside rear glass on the lower left side of the vehicle described below. If the permit is issued to a trailer or motorcycle, the applicant must carry the permit while the vehicle is in operation.

WARNING: A Temporary Permit authorizes the operation of a motor vehicle or trailer by a purchaser for no more than thirty (30) days from the date of purchase of the motor vehicle or trailer. This permit is non-transferable or renewable.
